

STEAM for the Baltic Sea

STEAM Turku and UBC Task Force Supporting Youth Employment and Well-Being warmly invite you to a webinar to learn more about the STEAM educational activities around the Baltic Sea.

The webinar will be organized on 29.3.2022 13.00-15.00 (Finnish time).

PROGRAM

Introduction to the STEAM Turku path

Niina Salonen, STEAM coordinator, City of Turku

Baltic Sea Action Group

Laura Höijer, CEO

Plastic pollution in the sea (student project)

Irene Ribienkiene

Student initiatives and projects for the Baltic Sea

TSYK upper secondary students, City of Turku

Register for the webinar by 28.3.2022:

<https://link.webpolsurveys.com/EP/0A8D231E6DEA78E7>

STEAM comes from the words Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics. STEAM Turku is a science and technology path in early childhood education, basic education and secondary level education in Turku, Southwest Finland.

Read more on STEAM Turku:
www.turku.fi/en/steam-turku